New Haven component 35th Reunion highlights:

- Friday afternoon class panel in which noted classmates will share their insight on American Foreign Policy with a particular emphasis on the Middle East and Korea - topics which are especially relevant in light of current world events. Our panelists so far include Strobe Talbott, former Deputy Secretary of State and President of the Brookings Institute; Sandy Randt, United States Ambassador to China; Steve Weisman, chief diplomatic correspondent for the New York Times; and Dan Yergin, a leading expert on oil in the Middle East.
- Rev. William Sloane Coffin '49 has agreed to join our class as its guest and give an address on Saturday afternoon. Following his address, some classmate panelists will join him to discuss religion in the secular and scientific age we live in today. Panelists will include Rabbi Jim Ponet, Jewish Chaplain and Director of the Joseph Slifka Center for Jewish Life at Yale; Rev. Bill Eddy; and Rev. Randy Frederikson.
- Our 35th reunion class dinner will be Friday evening; preceded by cocktails with a Caribbean steel band.
- Saturday we enjoy a special reception just for our class at the Peabody Museum Hall of Dinosaurs, and later dance the night away to the driving soul rhythms of the Boomers, featuring Miss Dynamite and the Vicious Bitches.
- The AYA has also planned a variety of all-alumni events for you to enjoy, including lectures on Friday morning by noted professors, a Welcome Reception on Hewitt Quadrangle Friday afternoon, and a plethora of lectures and tours to chose from during Saturday's "Morning at Yale" programming. President Levin will also give an update on the University on Saturday morning.
- The time to register is now. Registration materials for all events were mailed to classmates in early April. Reservations for the New Haven component of our reunion may be made on this website. If you have any questions which are not answered in the website call the Reunion Hotline at (203) 432-2110.
